

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

The Government and Combined Opposition on Even Terms.

GLADSTONE'S SLIM MAJORITY DUE TO CHURCH INFLUENCES.

By Agreement Home Rule Will Give Way to a Great Reform Measure—Latest Aspects of the Cholera Epidemic—Small-Pox in Victoria—General Foreign News.

LONDON, July 14.—At 2:10 o'clock this afternoon the returns show the election of 246 Conservatives, 223 Liberals, 88 Laborists, 48 anti-Farmilites, 7 Farmilites and 1 Laborist. This makes the consolidated opposition on equal terms with the Government.

It is stated that sermons were preached against Mr. Gladstone in almost every Established Church in Midlothian last Sunday. It cannot be doubted that the church question was the chief factor in the contest.

The Full Mail Gazette says: "The enormous reduction in Mr. Gladstone's majority is an event that may well cause the Unionists elation and which it would be folly for us to ignore. It was lucky the Conservatives did not send their members to contest the district. It looks very much as if, had Mr. Balfour stood against Mr. Gladstone, he might to-day have been the member for Midlothian."

The Daily News in an editorial article on the result in Midlothian, says: "The Tories will naturally make much of the reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority. It is a striking phenomenon, account for it how we may." The article concludes: "Although this is the first time that home rule has come before the Midlothian electors, there has been no contest in 1886, it was the disestablishment that did the mischief. Col. Wauchop fought like a gentleman. If Mr. Gladstone requires consolation he may reflect that Mr. Balfour in Manchester would have been very glad of his majority in Midlothian."

The Chronicle says: "The reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority is almost eccentric. It is partly due to the unparalyzing and unceasing influence of the Kirk, to which must be added the power of landlordism. But allowing all possible reduction of the Tory vote, the conclusion that Gladstonianism as a symbol of personal rather than political faith is waning in England and Scotland, Mr. Gladstone must move with the spirit of the age and choose his ministry, not from among his select personal circles, but from among men shaped to the new aspirations of democracy."

The Chronicle concludes its article with an invitation to Mr. Chamberlain to return to his allegiance to Mr. Gladstone and endeavor to arrive at a settlement of the tariff question. The Standard says: "The reduction of Mr. Gladstone's majority speaks volumes for the status of his party in Scotland. To whatever cause it may be attributed, it is a significant fact that Gladstonianism as a symbol of personal rather than political faith is waning in England and Scotland, Mr. Gladstone must move with the spirit of the age and choose his ministry, not from among his select personal circles, but from among men shaped to the new aspirations of democracy."

The Daily News, printed in Edinburgh, says: "The Church party naturally is reasonably elated and believes that the effect of the Midlothian contest will be to induce the postponement of the crusade against the established church. The heavy poll, equal to 84 per cent of the register, testifies to the assiduity of the agents of both sides. It is informed that the Conservatives have already decided to contest the seat when Mr. Gladstone offers himself for re-election. They do not expect to win, but the contest will be a good beginning of the system of worry which is still counted upon to wear Mr. Gladstone out of the contest. The necessary funds for a new contest have been promised over and over again, and before a month has expired Midlothian will be again in the throes of an election contest."

It is reported that T. M. Healy is victorious in North Louth by several hundred votes. Owen Macken, a veteran who was associated by a Calcutta mob in Dundalk, has died in the hospital of his injuries. His last words were: "I am for Healy to the backbone."

During the polling there was much rowdiness. Mr. Healy himself was assaulted, but was not seriously hurt.

The Dublin Independent (Parnellite) says at a select circle of Liberals held in London last night the announcement was made that the home rule bill will be postponed by agreement with the Irish party in order that some reform measure may be introduced in the coming Parliament.

Up to 4:50 o'clock this afternoon the total returns received show the election of 246 Conservatives, 223 Liberals, 88 anti-Farmilites, 7 Farmilites and 1 Laborist.

THE PLAGUE.

ASTRAKHAN THE NURSERY OF THE CHOLERA EPIDEMIC.

St. Petersburg, July 14.—Astrakhan has become the chief nursery of cholera on this side of the Caucasus. The epidemic advances rapidly there and elsewhere. The latest reports of the progress of the disease in Astrakhan say that in one day 25 persons were attacked with cholera and 102 others died from the disease. The Astrakhan Messenger publishes details of the recent riots at that place, growing out of the cholera epidemic. It says that the mob held the town for two days. A hospital was burned to the ground and all the medical staff of the institution were more or less injured. One doctor and his assistant were brutally beaten by the mob and trampled to death. The patients in the hospital were carried to the banks of the Volga and fed with milk as a supposed antidote to the cholera. The police and the doctors, and several succumbed to this extraordinary treatment. Only the firing of infantry volleys brought the riotous mob to reason. Since the last report new cases and deaths from cholera have been reported from Siberia, on the Volga.

Doctors here assert that cholera has appeared in Moscow, where there are thirty-five cases in hospitals, but that no deaths have occurred. The disease continues to spread in the towns in the infected districts. Several railroad trains traveling from Moscow to St. Petersburg became suspiciously ill. It is reported that cholera has broken out in the village of Jeletz, in the Government of Ork.

PARIS, July 14.—The municipal authorities have voted 150,000 francs to construct wooden cholera hospitals at Mont Martre, if such accommodations should become necessary. M. Loubet, the Prime Minister, in his statement in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday in reply to a question put to the Government regarding cholera, said that the authorities were studying to replace the drinking water taken from the Seine, contemplating the introduction of other water in its stead.

An outbreak of cholera was occurred at Osmar, and for fear of creating a panic, acrobats and other entertainers were excluded from Paris during the July fete. Extraordinary measures have been taken, however, to provide all the pumps with filtered water. The boulevards were thronged last night by a large crowd which had collected to view the torchlight procession opening the national fete. There were some slight disorders.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE ARMS EMPLOYED AT THE CRUEL HOAX. LONDON, July 14.—Mrs. Walcott Astor reports that her husband is still making rapid progress towards recovery. The report of Mr. Astor's death has caused the greatest indignation among the friends of the family, and it has been determined to punish the news agency or individual who started it. Mr. Adams, Mr. Astor's agent here, to-day received a cable dispatch from Mr. Baldwin, Mr. Astor's American agent, asking him to confirm the announcement contained in the cable dispatch received by him signed "Clement," that Mr. Astor was dead. "No one named Clement ever had any connection with Mr. Astor here," said Mr. Adams. "Why Mr. Baldwin or anyone else should implicitly accept news on such a subject from an unknown person, and especially when I am constantly cabling, I can't understand."

SMALL-POX. The report of the Spanish Medical Commission that was sent to Paris to inquire into the nature of the epidemic of so-called "cholera" has been received. The report declares that the disease is Asiatic cholera. In consequence of the report the government has ordered that precautions be immediately taken along the Pyrenean frontier to prevent the introduction of the disease into Spain.

ROYAL TROOPS OBNOXIOUS. MADRID, July 14.—There is widespread rioting in Spain against the Ocho de Agosto. At Avila, in the Province of Tarragona, the Ocho de Agosto were burned by a mob. The collector and the employees of the offices when they rushed from the burning building were stoned and several of them were badly injured. The rioters then captured the Town Hall. The Mayor fled, but was wounded by the rioters. The mob forced open the doors and destroyed many documents. The rioters showed an inclination to resist the soldiers, but the latter fired upon them, killing several and wounding many others.

COMMENT ON THE SILVER BILL. LONDON, July 14.—The Times referring to the defeat of the silver bill by the American Congress, says: "The unexpected resuscitation of the silver bill was probably due to the necessity of protesting in behalf of the silver interest against the attitude and stride adopted by both the Minneapolis and the Chicago convention."

FRENCH TARIFF DUTIES. PARIS, July 14.—The Senate has passed a bill prolonging the present tariff of protection until Jan. 1, 1893. It also passed the supplementary credit of 600,000 francs for the French exhibit at the Chicago Columbian Exposition.

The New York Guaranty & Indemnity Co. of New York, and the Ocho de Agosto of Boston, authorized to offer for subscription at par, 40,000 shares of the 8 per cent cumulative preferred stock of the Michigan Peninsular Car Co. The capital stock of the company is $8,000,000, divided into 50,000 shares of 8 per cent cumulative preferred stock of $100 each, and 50,000 shares of common stock of $10 each, all full paid stock. The company has no other assets or liabilities other than $1,000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent, fifty year bonds, which have been sold and subscribed for. This company has been incorporated for the purpose of taking over and carrying on the business of the Michigan Car Co., the Peninsular Car Co., the Detroit Car Wheel Co., the Michigan Forge & Iron Co., and the Detroit Pipe & Foundry Co. of Detroit. The business consists in the manufacture and sale of freight cars of every description, car wheels, castings, bar iron, and all the supplies required in the construction of railroad equipment. The high grade of equipment manufactured by these companies is recognized, and their products are included in all the important railroads and the leading transportation companies and packing houses in this country. The property covers about eighty-one and one-half acres of ground, of which seventy-six and one-half acres are owned by the company, and five acres are leased in perpetuity, wholly located within the city of Detroit. Eight acres thereof are on the Detroit River, having a system of piers and extensive wharfage. Seven railroads touch the property. There are seventy-eight buildings especially constructed for the requirements of the business. The total losses in the few years past amounting to more than $100,000,000 are ascertained to have been less than $5,000. The real estate, working plant, machinery and appliances have been appraised at $5,000,000, and the cash assets at $1,275,000. Expert chartered accountants of London and New York have examined the books of the companies and report that the net profits for the past five years amount to $4,384,250, or a yearly average profit of 902,875, after charging all manufacturing and administration expenses, repairs, renewals, depreciation of plant and machinery, and salaries, and allowing for doubtful debts. These net earnings are sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds, 8 per cent per annum upon the preferred stock, carry $80,000 per annum to surplus funds as provided by the by-laws of the company, and leave more than 10 per cent applicable to further dividends upon the common stock. The New York Guaranty & Indemnity Co. of New York is the transfer agent and trustee of the bonds and the Union Trust Co. of New York registrar of the stock. The former officers and directors of the consolidated companies are the directors, with the exception of the Hon. Russell A. Alger of Detroit, Edward F. Lawrence of Chicago, George R. Turnbull of New York and Matthew Addy of Cincinnati. The subscription books will be opened on Thursday, July 14, at 10 o'clock a. m. and close on Thursday, July 21, at 5 o'clock p. m. Application will be made to have the securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Subscriptions will be received in St. Louis by the St. Louis Trust Co.

Narrow Escape From Death. E. Aldrich, 80 years old, single, and residing at 11 North Fourteenth street, had a narrow escape from this morning about 12:30 o'clock. Aldrich is employed by the Municipal Electric Light Co., and while adjusting the wires on a pole he fell fifty feet. He was taken to the Dispensary suffering intense pain, but Dr. Fitzpatrick, who dressed his injuries, was unable to do much for him. The accident occurred at Ninth and Locust streets.

Great Ball in Georgia. From the Marion Journal.

The young men who do business on the "east" and "west" side of the square had another match game of base ball at the race track Wednesday afternoon of last week. The game resulted in favor of the "east side" by 15 to 24. The game was attended with a number of accidents. D. A. Hubbard was cut when a "four" ball struck the corner of the mask, driving a piece of wire in a circle around his left eye, making a fearful and bloody wound. The eye at once assumed swollen proportions, and it was feared that the sight had been destroyed, but we are glad to state that the sight will not be affected. He's now doing well. Another "fool" ball struck D. M. McNeil, who was also "cut" in the forehead, his nose screechingly. Charley Donnelly was batting, when a ball struck the back of his right hand, breaking two bones. He is now carrying it in a sling. W. A. Walker, in trying to slide to a base, had his left knee lacerated very painfully.

A SPLENDID OUTLOOK.
Prospects of Immense Corn Receipts at St. Louis.

Reports from the corn belt indicate that the receipts at St. Louis will be exceptionally large when the crop begins to come in. The crop will not, in all probability, be as heavy as that of last year, but a greater proportion of it will come to this city. There are several reasons given on "Change for this. One is that the destruction caused by the floods was greatest in the regions south of St. Louis that never shipped to this market, and in the districts that usually send their product by way of Chicago. Another, and a more potent factor, is the condition of the river. There is now no fear of low water, and boats and barges can go out with full cargoes, while in years when there is less water, two-thirds or half a cargo is all that can be carried. Last year much trade was lost, owing to the inability of shippers to obtain adequate transportation facilities. The amount of water in the river, in the opinion of old rivermen, is sufficient to prevent any very low stage. With the increased capacity of the barges the effect of freight is lowered. The establishment of new freight lines from New Orleans and Mobile to Europe, and the fact that the West Indies will have the most stimulating effect upon the St. Louis export trade. #### HIS NOTE TO ARTHUR LYONS.

Attorney Marshall McDonald sued on it by Bookmaker Fred Burdick. Burdick, the ex-bookmaker and Pool Alley sport, sued Attorney Marshall McDonald on a note for $100 in Justice Manning's court to-day. Burdick entered suit before Justice McCaffery ten days ago, but McDonald took a change of venue to Justice Manning's court. On July 27, 1890, McDonald borrowed $100 from Arthur Lyons, the bookmaker, now deceased, and gave him a fifteen-day note. According to McDonald, Lyons requested him several days later to defend a friend named Robinson in Bellville. Marshall McDonald alleges that he did so and that he carried the case to the Supreme Court of Illinois. For this service McDonald claims to have received no remuneration. Fifteen days after the note was due he received a communication from Lyons, saying that he was hard pressed and was about to deposit the note to meet some debts. McDonald says that when he saw Lyons and told him that he had received nothing for his services in behalf of Robinson it was agreed between them that the note should stand until Robinson settled up. McDonald alleges that he heard nothing more of the note until three months after the death of Lyons, when Burdick, the latter's partner in crime, called on him. McDonald disputed Burdick's right to the note and refused to pay it. Burdick then approached him several times after that, but to no purpose. He then brought suit. At Davis, Burdick's attorney, claimed that the money lent McDonald belonged to the bookmaking firm of Burdick & Lyons. Marshall McDonald alleged that Burdick found his note among the effects of Lyons and appropriated it. He claimed that the note belonged to anyone it was Lyons' mother, and he offered to pay it if she presented it. The jury, after remaining out about five minutes, returned a verdict for the defendant. Burdick will take an appeal.

AN UNEXAMPLED EXODUS.

Over Forty Thousand St. Louisans Take Summer Tours.

The exodus from St. Louis during the last two weeks has been something unexampled. According to railroad men, never before have so many summer tourists left the city for the Eastern watering places, the Northern lakes and the Western mountains. The Eastward movement has been uncommonly strong. Thousands upon thousands have left every week and the capacity of the passenger railroads to handle the passenger traffic has been taxed to the utmost. This is ascribed to the low rates that have prevailed, and which closed yesterday. During the remainder of the heated term it is expected that the eastbound traffic will be much lighter. The great exodus to the East has apparently had little effect upon the volume of northbound and westward travel. The travel has been extremely heavy. Estimates made by railroad officials at amount of travel. The reason given is the general prosperity and the consequent ability to indulge in a summer trip.

About 10 o'clock this morning Jennie Gardner, a child, was walking on Blow street on her way to the grocery, when she was attacked by a colored girl at the intersection of Pennsylvania avenue, and 15 cents, which she had in her hand, taken from her. Jean Bradley, Oscar Deno, Michael Linnen and Gus Morrow, four boys who learned of the affair, located Miami Perkins, a 14-year-old colored girl, in a basement of an old deserted house on the corner of the street. The child identified her as the girl who stole her money. One was seriously charged of pilfering. She is the girl who swore out a warrant some time ago charging Dr. W. W. Coe with kidnapping her. She was shortly afterward run away from home, causing the case to be nolle prossed.

McCarthey's Scrap with a Bear.

From the Livestock Herald.
Dr. W. H. Campbell returned Thursday morning from Upper Shields' River, where he had been called to attend A. E. McCarthey, who had been seriously injured by a bear. The Doctor found the bear in a deadly injured, and had to take sixty-nine stitches dressing the wounds about the injured man's head and face, and removing a portion of the bone over the eye, which had been shattered. Last Monday Mr. A. E. McCarthey, George Coe and James Murphy started on a bear hunt near the Crazy Mountains. They went up into the hills until they were in the snow and timber, when they struck a place where bear indications were plentiful, and they separated from each other a short distance. McCarthey discovered a bear in the thicket where he was, and immediately opened fire and sent three bullets into her bearship's body. The bear fled to the ground. He thought it was time to make his escape, and in attempting to run he fell over a log, and before he could arise the wounded bear was on top of him, fiercely clawing him with her terrible paws. Mr. Coe saw the dangerous position in which his companion was placed, and immediately opened fire and sent three bullets into her bearship's body. The bear fled to the ground.
